

Liaison Office Session

Content: The topic of Liaison office session in this year is the possibility of international joint education for higher research. After brief introduction of research grant system from each liaison office, we will find the possibility of international joint education and research to lead higher researches, a bridge of these countries, and the world. And we will report an international autumn school in Japan.