

The University of Sydney

Masud Behnia

Australia's First University

established in 1850

- ▶ 9 campuses
- ▶ 16 Faculties
- ▶ 171 research institutes
- ▶ $200 million research income
- ▶ More than 500 different degrees and thousands of subject choices

- ▶ 15 minutes to CBD
- ▶ 10 minutes to Central Station, Chinatown and major shopping centres
- ▶ Surrounded by charming urban villages

The University of Sydney

The University's crest is a combination of those of Oxford and Cambridge

More than 150 years of outstanding teaching and research

The University in 1878

- ▶ 4 Australian Prime Ministers – Sir Edmund Barton, Billy McMahon, Gough Whitlam and John Howard
- ▶ First President of the UN General Assembly - Dr Herbert Vere Evatt
- ▶ 3 Nobel Laureates - Sir John Cornforth (Chemistry), Sir Robert Robinson (Chemistry) and John Harsanyi (Economics)
- ▶ Managing Director, Sony Pictures Television – John Ford
- ▶ Former President of the World Bank – Dr James Wolfensohn AO
- ▶ Current Australian Ambassador to the USA – Dennis Richardson AO
- ▶ CEO of Macquarie Bank – Allan Moss
- ▶ Governor of New South Wales and Chancellor of the University of Sydney – Her Excellency, Professor Marie Bashir AC CVO

Times Higher Education Supplement (THES) World University Rankings: Ranked the University as No 37 in the World (October 2008)

The University of Sydney – 16%

The University of Melbourne – 13%

The University of Queensland – 12%

The Australian National University – 11%

The University of New South Wales – 9%

Monash University – 7%

The University of Western Australia – 4%

All other 33 universities – 28%

Students: About 46,000 enrolments

- ▶ 30,705 Undergraduate students
- ▶ 15,349 Postgraduate students
- ▶ 9,917 International students (21.5%)

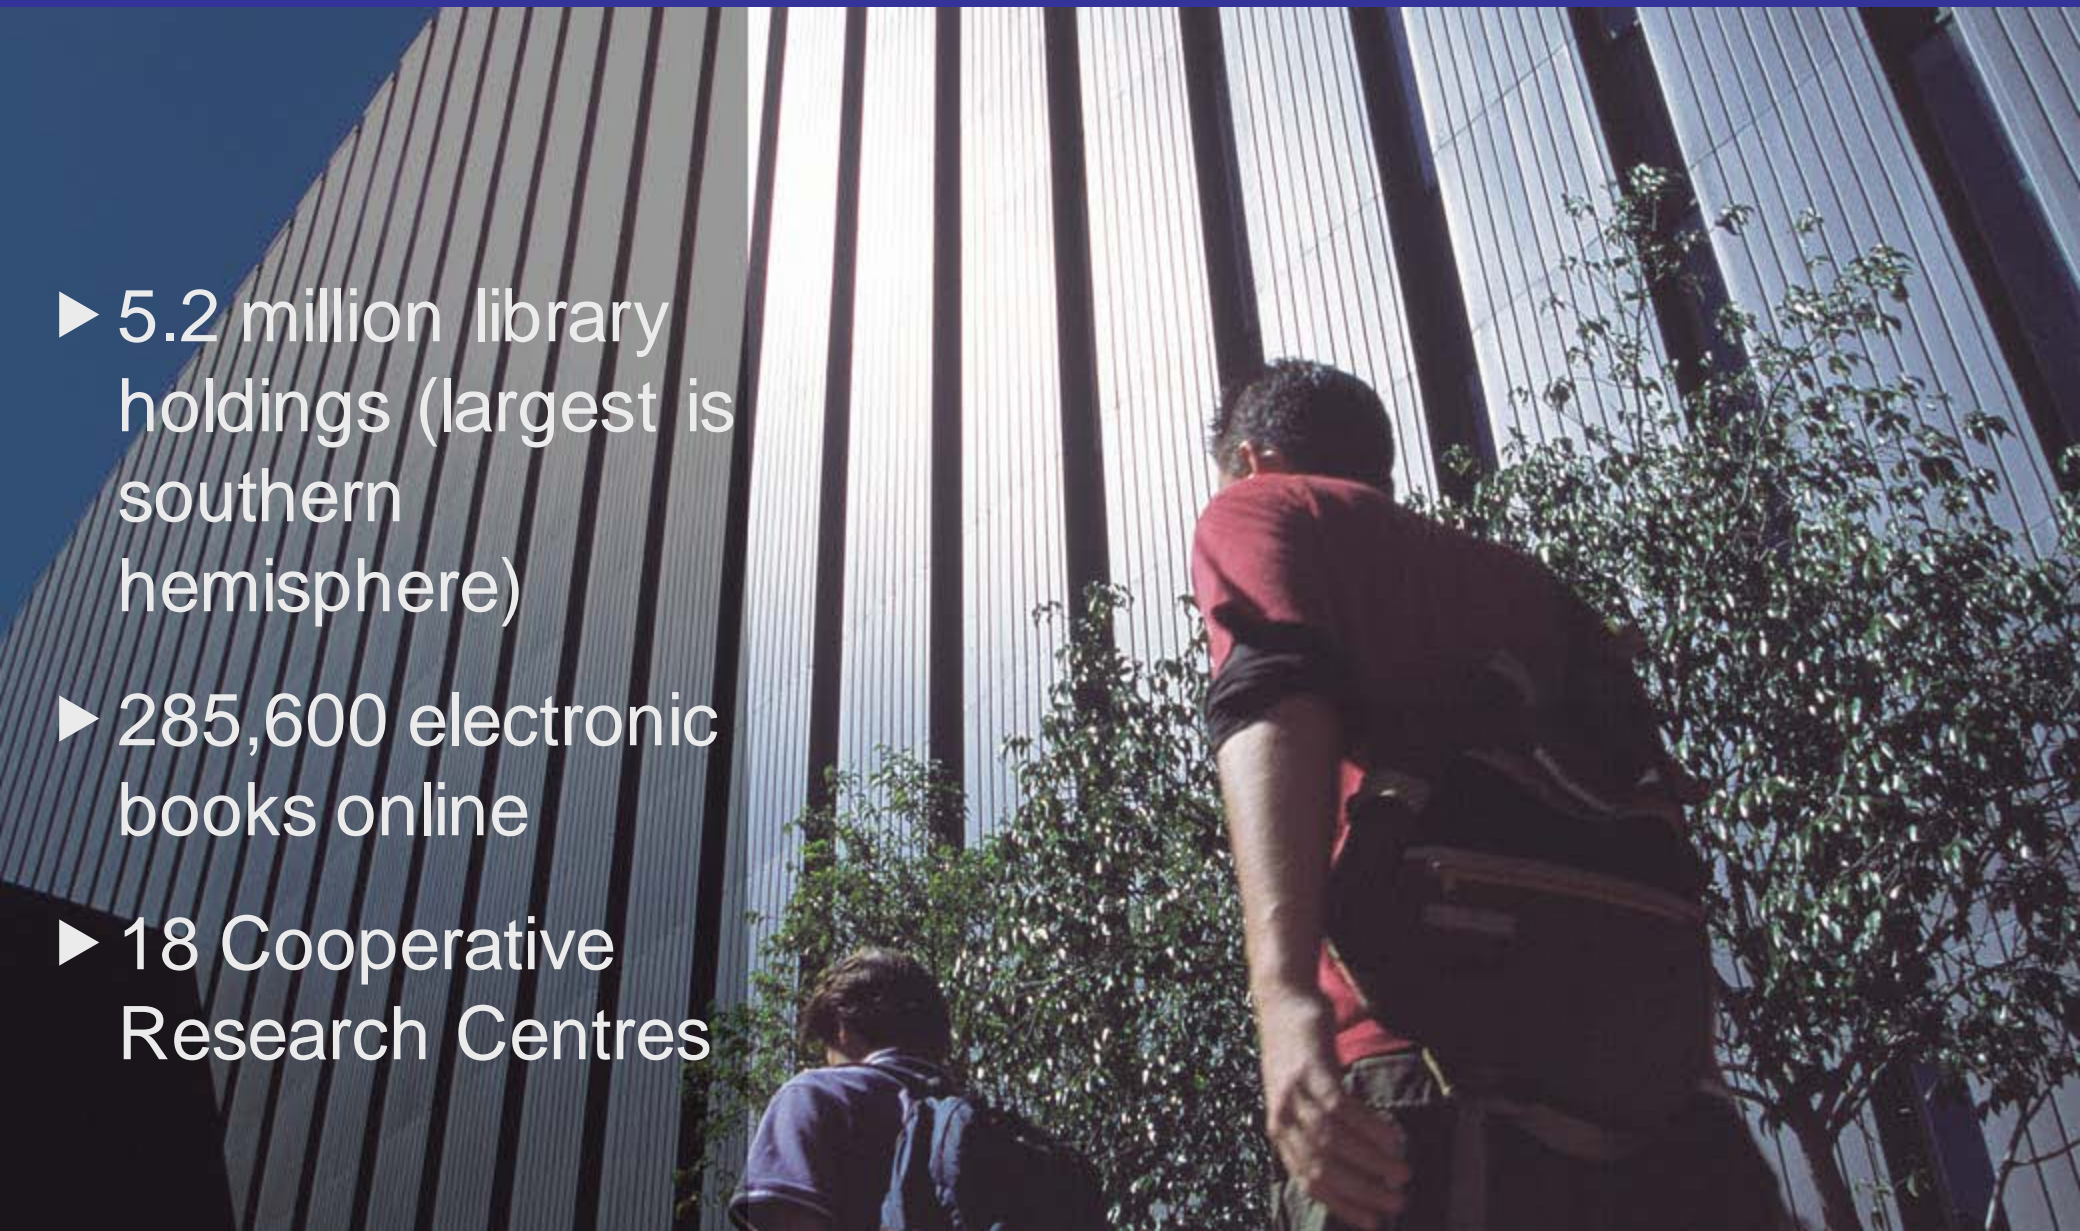

Staff:

- ▶ 3,018 academic staff
- ▶ 3,480 general staff

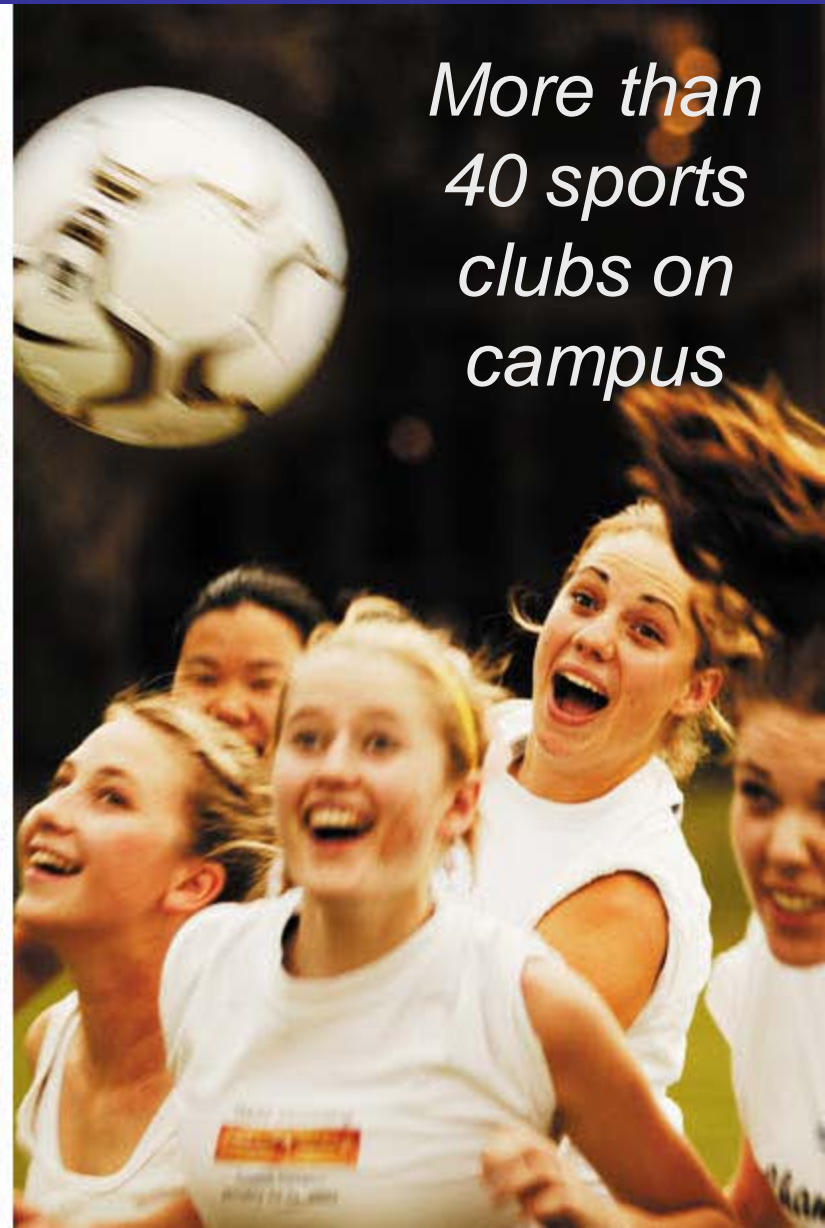

- ▶ 5.2 million library holdings (largest is southern hemisphere)
- ▶ 285,600 electronic books online
- ▶ 18 Cooperative Research Centres

More than 200 clubs
and societies to join

More than 40 sports clubs on campus

Australia's widest range of campus sports

And study with the best students from Australia and more than 100 other countries

The University of Sydney

Why Come to Sydney?

Sydney! You'll just love it!

The University of Sydney

どうもありがとうございました。
m(_ _)m

Thank you very much!