

Liaison Office Session

Topic: Possibility of International Joint Education for higher research

The topic of Liaison office session in this year is the possibility of international joint education for higher research. After introduction from education system by universities of liaison office, we will find the possibility of international joint education to lead higher researches, a bridge of these countries, and the world.